Accounting Act¹

Passed 20.11.2002
RT I 2002, 102, 600
entered into force pursuant to § 62 of this Act.

Chapter 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1. Purpose of Act

The purpose of this Act is to create the legal bases and establish general requirements for organising accounting and financial reporting pursuant to internationally recognised principles.

§ 2. Accounting entity

(1) All persons specified in this section (hereinafter accounting entities) are required to organise their accounting and financial reporting pursuant to this Act.

(2) The Republic of Estonia as a legal person in public law (hereinafter the state), local authorities, all legal persons in private or public law registered in Estonia, sole proprietors, and branches of foreign companies registered in Estonia (hereinafter branches) are accounting entities.

(3) The state organises its accounting and financial reporting through the state accounting entities.

(4) All ministries and the State Chancellery within the scope of its area of government and administration, and the constitutional institutions – the Riigikogu, the President of the Republic, the State Audit Office, the Chancellor of Justice and the Supreme Court – are state accounting entities.

(5) The provisions of this Act concerning accounting entities apply to the state accounting entities unless otherwise provided by law.
[RT I 2004, 90, 616 – entry into force 01.01.2005]

(6) If a company ceases to comply with the criteria set for a certain group of companies specified in clauses 14–20 of § 3 of this Act, the application of the specific provisions in this Act concerning the preparation of the annual report of this company shall discontinue exclusively in case the company fails to comply with the specified criteria on two consecutive balance sheet dates.
[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 3. Definitions used in Act

In this Act, the following definitions are used:

1) assets – resources under the dominant influence of an accounting entity which were created as a result of past events and which are expected to bring future economic benefits;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

2) liability – existing obligation of an accounting entity which arises from past events and the release from which is expected to reduce the economically useful resources;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

3) owners' equity – residual holding in the assets of an accounting entity after the deduction of all of its liabilities;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

4) income – an increase in economic benefits during the accounting period through an addition or increase in assets or reduction in liabilities as a result of which the owners' equity increases, excluding the owners' contributions to the owners' equity;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

5) expenses – a reduction in economic benefits during the accounting period through a reduction, exhaustion or depreciation of assets or liabilities as of a result of which the owners' equity decreases, excluding payments made to the owners on account of the owners' equity;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

6) profit (loss) – the difference between the income and expenses of an accounting entity during an accounting period;

7) Estonian financial reporting standard – body of financial reporting requirements directed at the public and based on the internationally accepted accounting and reporting principles, which principal requirements are established by this Act and which is specified by a regulation of the minister in charge of the policy sector established on the basis of subsection 4 of § 34 of this Act (hereinafter guideline of the Standards Board);

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

8) internationally accepted accounting and reporting principles – the European Union directives, which regulate the accounting, and generally accepted financial reporting standards;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

9) generally accepted financial reporting standards – the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) approved by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), the International Financial Reporting Standard for Small and Medium-sized Entities (IFRS for SMEs), the International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS) approved by the International Public Sector Accounting Standards Board (IPSASB) of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) and other similar standards;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

10) [Repealed – RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

11) management – the person or persons (for example, the management board of a company) entitled to manage the daily activities of and conclude transactions for an accounting entity (except a sole proprietor);

12) highest supervisory body – the body of an accounting entity which is formed on the basis of an Act or on the basis of articles of association or statutes and which exercises direct supervision over the management (for example, the supervisory body of a company).

13) annual report taxonomy – standardised body of elements and linkbases of annual report;

[RT I 2009, 54, 363 – entry into force 01.01.2010]

14) micro undertaking – a private limited company which indicators meet on the balance sheet date of an accounting year all the following conditions: total assets up to 175,000 euros, liabilities not exceeding the owners' equity, one shareholder who is also the member of the management board and which sales revenue during an accounting year is up to 50,000 euros;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

15) small undertaking – a company registered in Estonia which is not a micro undertaking and only one of which indicators may exceed on the balance sheet date of an accounting year the following conditions: total assets 4,000,000 euros, sales revenue 8,000,000 euros and average number of employees during an accounting year 50 persons;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

16) medium-sized undertaking – a company registered in Estonia which is neither a micro undertaking nor small undertaking and only one of which indicators may exceed on the balance sheet date of an accounting year the following conditions: total assets 20,000,000 euros, sales revenue 40,000,000 euros and average number of employees during an accounting year 250 persons;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

17) large undertaking – a company registered in Estonia at least two of which indicators exceed on the balance sheet date of an accounting year the following conditions: total assets 20,000,000 euros, sales revenue 40,000,000 euros and average number of employees during an accounting year 250 persons;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

18) small consolidation group – a consolidation group not more than one of which consolidated indicators of the balance sheet date of an accounting year exceeds the terms and conditions specified in clause 15 of this section;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

19) medium-sized consolidation group – a consolidation group which is not a small consolidation group and not more than one of which consolidated indicators of the balance sheet date of an accounting year exceeds the terms and conditions specified in clause 16 of this section;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

20) large consolidation group – a consolidation group at least two of which consolidated indicators of the balance sheet date of an accounting year exceed the terms and conditions specified in clause 17 of this section.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

Chapter 2 ORGANISATION OF ACCOUNTING

§ 4. General requirements for organisation of accounting

An accounting entity is required:

1) to organise its accounts in such a way as to ensure the provision of up-to-date, relevant, objective and comparable information concerning the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the accounting entity;

2) to document all its business transactions;

3) on the basis of source documents or summary documents prepared on the basis thereof, to post and record all its business transactions in accounting ledgers and journals;

4) to prepare and submit annual reports and other financial statements pursuant to the procedure provided for in this Act and other legislation;

5) to preserve accounting documents.

[RT I 2005, 61, 478 – entry into force 01.12.2005]

§ 5. Accrual based and cash based accounting

(1) Cash based accounting means that business transactions are recorded when cash is paid or received for the transactions.

(2) Accrual based accounting means that business transactions are recorded when they occur, regardless of when cash is received or paid for the transactions. Upon the preparation of financial statements, adjusting and closing entries shall be made which allow for the correct measurement and reporting of the income and expenses of the accounting period.

(3) Accounts shall be maintained on an accrual basis unless otherwise provided by this Act.

§ 6. Documenting and recording business transactions

(1) For the purposes of this Act, business transaction means a transaction, other action, event or unlawful act provided by law, as a result of which changes occur in the assets, liabilities or owners' equity of the accounting entity.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(2) An accounting entity is required to document and record all its business transactions in journals and ledgers within a reasonable period of time following a business transaction such that the submission of reports prescribed by legislation within the specified term is ensured.

(3) Business transactions shall be recorded on a double-entry basis where the same amount is debited to one account and credited to another account.

(4) All accounting entries (hereinafter entry) shall be supported by source documents certifying the corresponding business transactions or by summary documents prepared on the basis of source documents.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(5) An entry shall contain at least the following information:

- 1) the date of the business transaction;
- 2) the entry identification, e.g. number or combination of number and letter;
- 3) the accounts debited and credited and the corresponding amounts;
- 4) reference to the source or summary document constituting the basis for the entry.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

§ 7. Source documents

(1) An accounting source document is a certificate which content and format shall, if necessary, allow a competent and independent party demonstrating the circumstances and veracity of the occurrence of a business transaction.

(2) Unless otherwise provided by law or a regulation issued on the basis thereof, a source document shall contain at least the following information concerning a business transaction:

- 1) time of occurrence;
- 2) description of economic content;
- 3) figures, for example, quantity, price and amount.

(3) If the counterparty of an accounting entity is an accounting entity, state accounting entity or foreign legal person, an invoice concerning the transfer of goods or provision of services shall contain in addition to the items specified in subsection 2 of this section also the invoice number or other identification and the information enabling to identify the parties to the transaction.

(4) When recording a business transaction in the accounting journals and ledgers, reference to the entry shall be added to the source or summary document.

(5) A source document shall be machine-processable. A source document may be in another format which can continuously be reproduced in writing, if this arises from a legal instrument or if a party to the transaction has no opportunity for handling machine-processable source documents and the creation of this opportunity requires from the accounting entity disproportionate costs or efforts.

(6) Machine processability for the purposes of this Act is a data stream identifier, which occurs when using the harmonised data description in creation of the data stream so that the IT applications created for this purpose are able to unambiguously identify the internal structure and individual factual allegations of the data stream.

(7) The requirements established with regard to a source document shall apply to a summary document prepared on the basis of the source documents.

(8) If the accounting journals and ledgers are not maintained in machine-processable format, adjusting entries shall be supported by adjusting entry documents.

(9) It is permitted to transfer a source document to another format or medium, if the source document data concerning a business transaction are not modified in the course of the transfer and the conformity of the source document to the requirements provided by law is ensured. In such case, an accounting entity may preserve only a source document in the modified format or on another medium.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

§ 7¹. Format and conditions of submission of machine-processable source documents

(1) The format and conditions of submission of machine-processable source documents shall be agreed between the transaction partners, unless otherwise provided by law or another legal instrument. In the absence of a transaction partner, the format of a machine-processable source document shall be determined by an accounting entity.

(2) The inviolability of the private life of persons, national security and protection of business secrets and other restricted information shall be ensured in the handling of machine-processable source documents.

(3) The provider of handling service for machine-processable source documents (hereinafter handler of machine-processable source documents), with whom an accounting entity or state accounting entity has entered into a contract for the use of the specified service, shall transmit the respective information to the commercial register or the non-profit associations and foundations register or the state register of state and local government agencies which, after requesting and receiving a corresponding confirmation from the accounting entity or state accounting entity, shall update the data of the accounting entity or state accounting entity in the register with the identifier of the handler of machine-processable source documents.

(4) The handler of machine-processable source documents specified in subsection 3 of this section and entered in the register shall be the primary channel of an accounting entity and state accounting entity for receiving machine-processable source documents.

(5) The e-address shall be used for the identification of the addressee of a machine-processable source document. The e-address for the purposes of this Act is an identifier composed of the code of the country of location and the registry code of an accounting entity or state accounting entity, or another relevant identifier in the absence thereof.

(6) The exact format of the e-address to be used upon transmission of source documents by an accounting entity or state accounting entity may be established by a regulation of the minister in charge of the policy sector.

(7) Upon transfer of goods or provision of services to a state accounting entity, local authority, legal person in public law or accounting entity which is directly or indirectly under the dominant influence of said persons or which is a contracting authority or contracting entity within the meaning of § 5 of the Public Procurement Act, the accounting entity shall submit a machine-processable invoice (hereinafter e-invoice). The e-invoice shall meet either the requirements of a regulation established on the basis of subsection 10 of this section or the European standard on electronic invoicing, the reference regarding which is published in the Official Journal of the European Union. [RT I, 15.03.2019, 3 – entry into force 01.07.2019].

(8) The requirements specified in subsections 3–7 of this section need not be applied if:

- 1) a machine-processable source document is submitted to a security authority;
- 2) a machine-processable source document contains a state secret or classified information of a foreign state;
- 3) the obligation of professional secrecy extends to the information in a machine-processable source document on the basis of law;
- 4) the law or regulation issued on the basis thereof prescribes a procedure which differs from the provisions of this Act with respect to the format and submission of a machine-processable source document.

(9) In the cases specified in clauses 1–3 of subsection 8 of this section, the format and conditions of submission of a source document shall be agreed between the transaction partners.

(10) The format and technical specifications of machine-processable source documents to be submitted to the persons specified in subsection 7 of this section shall be stipulated in the guidelines on machine-processable source documents established by a regulation of the minister in charge of the policy sector.

(11) The guidelines on machine-processable source documents shall be based on the best practices and support user and environmentally-friendly and cost-efficient circulation of source documents without human assistance.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017 – obligation provided for in subsection 7 implemented as of 1 July 2017.]

§ 8. Chart of accounts

(1) An accounting entity shall prepare a chart of accounts for recording business transactions and adjusting entries.

(2) A state accounting entity shall prepare a chart of accounts, taking into consideration the requirements of the public sector financial accounting and reporting guidelines.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

§ 9. Accounting journals and ledgers

(1) The accounting journals and ledgers are bodies of information which contain information on the entries and balances set out in the accounts and also bodies of information which contain detailed information which is the basis for the entities.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(2) The accounting journals and ledgers shall enable extracts to be made of recorded business transactions in chronological order.

(3) The accounting journals and ledgers shall be maintained in machine-processable format. The accounting journals and ledgers may be in another format which can continuously be reproduced in writing, if an accounting entity has no opportunity to maintain the accounting journals and ledgers in machine-processable format and the creation of this opportunity requires from the accounting entity disproportionate costs or efforts.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

§ 10. Corrections to journals and ledgers

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

Correction or deletion of an entry is permitted only in case the entry must be brought into compliance with the source or summary document. The content of the correction or reason for the deletion and the time of correction or deletion shall be identifiable within the term specified in subsection 2 of § 12 of this Act.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

§ 11. Accounting policies and procedures

(1) An accounting entity, except a micro undertaking, is required to establish accounting policies and procedures which establish the charting of accounts together with a description of the contents of the accounts and which regulate, among other things, the documentation and recording of business transactions, the flow and preservation of source documents, the maintenance of accounting journals and ledgers, the presenting of revenue and expenditure under Income Statement items, physical inventory of assets and liabilities, the accounting policy and presentation format used by the accounting entity, the procedure for preparing financial statements, usage of accounting software, and the circumstances relating to the organisation of accounting and the implementation of related internal audit measures.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(2) A state accounting entity shall prepare accounting policies and procedures, taking into consideration the requirements of the public sector financial accounting and reporting guidelines.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

§ 12. Obligation to preserve accounting documents

(1) An accounting entity shall preserve accounting source documents for seven years as of the end of the financial year when a business transaction was recorded in the accounting journals and ledgers on the basis of the source document.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(2) Accounting ledgers, journals, contracts, financial statements, reports and other business documents which are necessary for reconstructing business transactions during audits shall be preserved by the accounting entity for seven years as of the end of the corresponding financial year.

(3) Business documents relating to long-term liabilities or rights shall be preserved for seven years after the expiry of their term of validity.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(4) Accounting rules and procedures shall be preserved for seven years after the amendment or replacement thereof.

(5) The documents and data specified in subsections 1–4 of this section shall be preserved in machine-processable format. The ability to reproduce in writing, the legibility in plain text and evidential value of the preserved documents and data shall be ensured during the whole retention period. The documents and data may be preserved in another format which can continuously be reproduced in writing, if an accounting entity has no opportunity to preserve the documents and data in machine-processable format and the creation of this opportunity requires from the accounting entity disproportionate costs or efforts.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

Chapter 3 ANNUAL REPORT

§ 13. Financial year

(1) The length of a financial year is twelve months.

(2) In the event of an accounting entity being founded or terminated or the date of the commencement of its financial year being changed, or in other cases prescribed by law, the financial year of the accounting entity may be shorter or longer than twelve months but shall not exceed eighteen months.

(3) The financial year of an accounting entity is deemed to be a calendar year, unless otherwise provided for in the articles of association of the accounting entity or any other document regulating the activities thereof.

(4) The financial year of the state and the state accounting entities is the budgetary year.

§ 14. Preparation of annual report

(1) At the end of each financial year, an accounting entity is required to prepare an annual report which consists of the annual accounts and the management report.

[RT I 2009, 54, 363 – entry into force 01.01.2010]

(1¹) A micro undertaking which follows in the organisation of financial accounting and reporting the Estonian financial reporting standard may prepare an annual report comprising only the annual accounts.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(2) The preparation of an annual report entails the following steps:

- 1) preparation of the annual accounts;
- 2) preparation of the management report;
- 3) approval of the annual report.

[RT I, 25.05.2012, 8 – entry into force 04.06.2012]

(2¹) The submission of an annual report entails the following steps:

- 1) auditing;
- 2) in the case of a company, preparation of the profit distribution proposal or proposal on covering of loss for the financial year;
- 3) submission of the annual report for approval.

[RT I, 25.05.2012, 8 – entry into force 04.06.2012]

(3) An audit obligation shall be provided for in the Auditors Activities Act.

[RT I 2010, 9, 41 – entry into force 08.03.2010]

§ 14¹. Annual report taxonomy

(1) The annual report taxonomy and the reporting forms prepared on the basis of thereof shall be established by a regulation of the minister in charge of the policy sector, also determining the standard and elements of the taxonomy and the taxonomy administrator.
[RT I, 09.05.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2018]

(2) [Repealed – RT I, 09.05.2017, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2018]

(3) In the preparation of the annual report and the final report, and the documents submitted therewith, an accounting entity follows the taxonomy established on the basis of subsection 1 of this section and the reporting forms established on the basis of subsection 2 of this section.

[RT I, 05.05.2022, 1 – entry into force 01.02.2023]

(4) The state or local government agency or other person performing public duties shall not demand from an accounting entity the submission of the information included in the taxonomy which the accounting entity has submitted to the register for publication together with the annual report pursuant to the procedure provided by law.

(5) The state or local government agency or other person performing public duties may require an accounting entity to submit the information included in the taxonomy in case:

1) the information is required before the accounting entity has submitted the information to the register and if it is not possible to wait until the term prescribed for the submission of the annual report to the register;

2) the information is required in respect to different period as compared to the information submitted to the register and if it is not possible to reasonably derive the requested information from the information submitted to the register;

3) the definitions of the required information are not identical to the definitions of the elements of the taxonomy and if it is not possible to achieve the desired objective using the information of the elements of the taxonomy.

(5¹) The state or local government authority or other performing public duties may, for the purpose of the reduction of administrative burdens accompanying the submission of data, provide an accounting entity with an opportunity to submit in the annual report and the documents to be submitted together therewith the data cross-used in the public sector databases.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(6) Subsection 3 of this section is not applied to the annual reports of the state, state accounting entities, local authorities, legal persons in public law registered in Estonia and sole proprietors, the financial statements of branches, and the financial statements of foreign companies which are submitted by the director of the branch to the register for publication.

[RT I, 23.11.2021, 1 – entry into force 31.12.2021, amendment to subsection 6 of § 14¹ which enters into force on 31 December 2021 applies to the financial year starting after entry into force of the amendment.]

(7) Subsection 3 of this section shall not be followed by accounting entities who organise their accounting based on the international financial reporting standards specified in clause 2 of subsection 1 of § 17 of this Act or whose principal and permanent activity for the purposes of the Credit Institutions Act is the provision of the financial services, or who prepare the annual report of the consolidation group.

[RT I, 25.05.2012, 8 – entry into force 04.06.2012]

§ 15. Annual accounts

(1) The purpose of the preparation and publication of the annual accounts is to provide the user of the accounts who have sufficient financial knowledge to understand the accounts with relevant and truthfully submitted information regarding the financial position and performance and cash flows of an accounting entity which the user of the accounts can use in making his or her business decisions.
[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(2) The annual accounts shall comprise the main statements (balance sheet, income statement, cash flow statement and statement of changes in owners' equity) and notes on the accounts.

[RT I 2009, 19, 116 – entry into force 06.04.2009]

(2¹) The annual accounts of a micro undertaking and small undertaking following the Estonian financial reporting standard shall comprise at least two main statements (balance sheet and income statement) and notes (hereinafter abridged annual accounts).

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(2²) The objective of a micro undertaking in the preparation and publication of the abridged annual accounts is to provide the user of the accounts with the information required in this Act regarding its financial position and performance.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3) The objective of a small undertaking in the preparation and publication of the abridged annual accounts is to provide the user of the accounts who have sufficient financial knowledge to understand the accounts with relevant and truthfully submitted information regarding its financial position and performance which the user of the accounts can use in making his or her business decisions.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3) Annual accounts shall be prepared on the basis of the business transactions and adjusting entries recorded in the journals and ledgers during the financial year. For the purposes of preparing annual accounts, physical inventory shall be taken of the balances of the assets and liabilities of the accounting entity, the conformity of the value of the assets and liabilities recorded in the journals and ledgers to the accounting policies provided for in §§ 16 and 17 of this Act shall be assessed, adjusting and closing entries shall be made and the main statements and notes shall be prepared.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(4) The accounting policies used for preparing annual accounts shall be chosen and information shall be published in accordance with the requirements provided for in §§ 16 and 17 of this Act.

(5) Annual accounts shall be prepared in Estonian and in the currency officially applicable in Estonia, and the degree of precision used for the figures shall be indicated (for example, in thousands of currency units).

[RT I 2005, 61, 478 – entry into force 01.12.2005]

§ 16. Basic principles for preparation of annual accounts

The following basic principles forming a part of the internationally accepted accounting and reporting principles shall be primary factors taken into consideration in preparation of annual accounts:

1) business entity – the accounting entity keeps separate accounts of its assets, liabilities and business transactions and the assets, liabilities and business transactions of its owners, creditors, employees, customers and other persons;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

2) going concern – in the preparation of financial statements, the accounting entity is presumed to be carrying on its activities as a going concern and not to have the intention of or need for terminating its activities. If a financial statement is not prepared in accordance with the going concern assumption, the accounting principle applied shall be set out in the statement;

3) understandability – the information disclosed in financial statements shall be concise and unambiguous to users of the statement who have sufficient financial knowledge to understand the statement;

4) materiality – financial statements shall set out all material information which affects the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the accounting entity. Information in financial statements is considered material if failure to disclose the information could influence the business decisions made by the users of the statements on the basis thereof. Immaterial items may be accounted for and recorded in the financial statements using a simplified method;

5) consistency and comparability – the same accounting policies and presentation is used on an on-going basis in preparation of financial statements; The presentation and accounting policies may be changed if this possibility arises from this Act or if the new accounting policy or presentation increases the relevance and truthful submission of the financial information;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

6) matching principle – expenses relating to the revenue earned during a given accounting period are deducted from such revenue. Costs incurred during an accounting period other than the period in which they benefit the accounting entity shall be recorded as expenses during the period in which they benefit the entity;

7) objectivity – information presented in financial statements shall be objective and reliable;

8) conservatism – financial statements shall be prepared on a prudent and cautious basis in order to avoid overestimation of assets or revenue or underestimation of liabilities or expenses. At the same time, it is prohibited intentionally to understate assets or revenue, overstate liabilities or expenses, or create reserves hidden from the users of the statements;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

9) disclosure – financial statements shall set out all the information which provides the users of the statement who have sufficient financial knowledge to understand the statement with an opportunity to obtain relevant and truthfully submitted financial information regarding an accounting entity;

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

10) substance over form – business transactions are recorded in accounts and financial statements based on their substance even if this does not correspond to their legal form.

§ 17. Applicable financial reporting standard

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(1) The organisation of the financial accounting and the accounting policies and presentation format used in the financial reporting shall be in compliance with the requirements provided for in this Act and one of the following two financial reporting standards:

1) the Estonian financial reporting standard;

2) the international financial reporting standard (hereinafter directly applicable standard) adopted by the European Commission pursuant to the procedure provided for in Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the application of international accounting standards (OJ L 243, 11.09.2002, p. 1–4).

(2) A company, the securities issued by which are admitted for trading on a regulated securities market of Estonia or another State which is a contracting party to the EEA Agreement (hereinafter Contracting State), credit institution, financial holding company, mixed financial holding company, investment firm and insurance undertaking shall follow the directly applicable standard in the financial reporting.

(3) The policies used in the financial reporting of Eesti Pank shall be determined by the Governor of Eesti Pank in compliance with the guidelines on reporting of the European Central Bank. The provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall be used in the areas not governed thereby.

(4) The financial reporting of the state, a state accounting entity, local authority, another legal person in public law and an accounting entity belonging to the same consolidation group as the aforementioned accounting entity, which objective does not consist in profit-making through economic activities, shall be based on the public sector financial accounting and reporting guidelines.

(5) The financial reporting of an accounting entity, which objective consists in profit-making through economic activities and over which a state accounting entity, local authority or other legal person in public law has dominant influence directly or indirectly or through other persons who are under dominant or significant influence, shall be based on one of the standards specified in subsection 1 of this section and the formats of reports and the procedure for the submission thereof provided for in the public sector financial accounting and reporting guidelines.

(6) In the areas not governed by the standards specified in subsection 1 of this section, an accounting entity is permitted to use in the preparation of the financial statements the generally accepted financial reporting standards to the extent that these are not in conflict with the current legislation of Estonia.

§ 18. Balance sheet and income statement

(1) Balance sheet means a financial statement which shows the financial position (assets, liabilities and owners' equity) of an accounting entity at a given date.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(2) Income statement (statement of gains and losses) means a financial statement which shows the financial performance (income, expenses and profit or loss) of an accounting entity during an accounting period.

(3) An accounting entity which prepares its annual accounts in accordance with the Estonian financial reporting standard shall use the balance sheet format set out in Annex 1 to this Act and one of the two income statement formats set out in Annex 2 to this Act.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

An accounting entity which follows the reporting forms established on the basis of subsection 2 of § 14¹ of this Act may submit the balance sheet layout items provided in Annex 1 to this Act in ascending order of liquidity.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3¹) In the abridged annual accounts, a micro undertaking must submit on the balance sheet at least the items marked with an asterisk in the balance sheet layout provided in Annex 1 to this Act.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3²) In the abridged annual accounts, a small undertaking may submit subdivisions of the balance sheet layout items provided in Annex 1 to this Act and of the items designated by Arabic numerals stated in the income statement layout provided in Annex 2 in the notes on the annual accounts instead of the balance sheet and income statement.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3³) A large undertaking and medium-sized undertaking which follows the reporting forms established on the basis of subsection 2 of § 14¹ of this Act must submit subdivisions of the balance sheet layout items provided in Annex 1 to this Act and of the items designated by Arabic numerals stated in the income statement layout provided in Annex 2 in the notes on the annual accounts instead of the balance sheet and income statement.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3⁴) An accounting entity specified in subsection 6 of § 14¹ of this Act which follows the balance sheet layout provided in Annex 1 to this Act and the income statement layout provided in Annex 2 may:

- 1) submit subdivisions of the balance sheet items in the notes instead of the balance sheet;
- 2) aggregate immaterial balance sheet and income statement items taking into account the materiality principle;
- 3) further specify the titles of balance sheet and income statement items;
- 4) append additional items or subdivisions of items if this makes for greater information value and legibility of the balance sheet or income statement.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(4) In certain areas of activity where the specific nature of the business activities so requires, an accounting entity specified in subsection 3 of this section may use other balance sheet and income statement formats than those set out in the Annexes to this Act. The purpose of the annual accounts specified in § 15 of this Act and the requirements of other legislation regulating the given field of activity shall be followed, inter alia, in choosing the above format.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 19. Cash flow statement

(1) Cash flow statement means a financial statement which presents the cash flows (receipts and payments of cash and cash equivalents) of an accounting entity during an accounting period.

(2) A cash flow statement presents the amounts received or paid out by the accounting entity during the accounting period and classifies the cash flows according to their objective into cash flows from operating, investing or financial activities.

(3) Cash flows from operating activities may be presented using either the direct method which shows all major types of receipts and payments as gross amounts or the indirect method where the profit for the accounting period is adjusted to the impact of non-cash business transactions, changes in the balances of assets and liabilities relating to operating activities and the revenue and expenses relating to the cash flows arising from investing or financing activities.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(4) Cash flows arising from investing and financing activities shall be presented using the direct method.

§ 20. Statement of changes in owners' equity

(1) Statement of changes in owners' equity means a financial statement presenting the changes which have occurred in the owners' equity of an accounting entity during an accounting period.

(2) A statement of changes in owners' equity presents the changes which have occurred in the owners' equity items of an accounting entity during an accounting period, showing separately owners' investments and withdrawals of capital, the profit or loss for the accounting period, the impact of changes in accounting policies, the increases and decreases in reserves, and other business transactions which have had an impact on the owners' equity items.

(3) An accounting entity which is a company who prepares the annual report of the consolidation group shall take guidance from the adjusted unconsolidated owners' equity upon calculating compliance with the requirements established for the owners' equity in the Commercial Code. The adjusted unconsolidated owners' equity is equal to unconsolidated owners' equity of the company from which the book value of the holdings under significant influence set out in its balance sheet has been deducted and to which the value of such holdings calculated by using the equity method has been added. The procedure of calculating the adjusted unconsolidated owners' equity shall be disclosed in the statement of changes in owners' equity.

[RT I 2005, 61, 478 – entry into force 01.12.2005]

- 12) the description of the nature and business purpose of the significant transactions that are not included in the balance sheet;
- 13) the average number of employees;
- 14) the name and registered office of the consolidating entity preparing the consolidated financial statements of the consolidation group to which a small undertaking belongs.

(4) A micro undertaking must disclose in the notes on the abridged annual accounts at least the information specified in clauses 4, 6 and 7 of subsection 3 of this section and in subsection 5 of § 24.

(5) The notes on the annual accounts shall be in compliance with one of the accounting standards specified in § 17 of this Act.

(6) If the executive management reaches the conclusion that adherence to the Estonian financial reporting standard is insufficient to achieve the objective of the annual accounts, the notes on the annual accounts shall provide the information which is necessary to obtain relevant and truthfully submitted financial information.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(7) If adherence to a provision of the Estonian financial reporting standard hinders the achievement of the objective of the annual accounts, it is permitted to deviate from this provision, explaining the reasons for the deviation in the note describing the accounting policies used in the preparation of the annual accounts.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(8) The provisions of subsections 6 and 7 of this section do not apply to the abridged annual accounts of a micro undertaking.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 22. Comparability of annual accounts

(1) Annual accounts shall show comparable figures for both the current financial year and the preceding financial year. Items for which there is no amount shall be shown only if there is a corresponding item for the preceding financial year.

(2) If the figures for the accounting year and the previous financial year are not comparable due to changes made in the presentation format or accounting policies during the accounting year, the comparable figures for the previous financial year shall be recalculated and brought into compliance with the presentation format and accounting policy used in the accounting year. The reasons for recalculating comparable figures, and the amounts adjusted in comparison to the figures of the annual accounts of the previous financial year shall be disclosed in the notes on the accounts. If it is not possible or expedient to recalculate comparable figures, this fact shall be presented in the notes on the accounts together with the reasons therefor.

Chapter 4 ANNUAL REPORT OF CONSOLIDATION GROUP

§ 27. Consolidation group and entities thereof

(1) Consolidating entity means a parent undertaking or any other accounting entity exercising dominant influence over another accounting entity. Dominant influence may, inter alia, arise from the following circumstances:

1) a holding of more than 50 per cent of the voting rights in the consolidated entity;

2) a direct or indirect right arising from law or a contract to appoint or remove a majority of the members of the management or the highest supervisory body by exercising the rights of a founder or by a decision of the general meeting.

(2) Consolidated entity means a subsidiary undertaking or any other accounting entity over which another accounting entity (the consolidating entity) exercises dominant influence.

(3) A consolidating entity together with one or more consolidated entities form a consolidation group.

(4) Consolidation means combination of the financial statements of the accounting entities belonging to the consolidation group as if they were a single accounting entity.

§ 28. Annual report of consolidation group

(1) At the end of each financial year, an accounting entity which is a consolidating entity in the accounting year or which was a consolidating entity in the financial year preceding the accounting year shall prepare an annual report as specified in subsection 1 of § 14 of this Act in the form of the annual report of the consolidation group and consisting of the annual accounts and management report of the consolidation group.

[RT I 2009, 54, 363 – entry into force 01.01.2010]

(2) The annual report of the consolidation group and the parts thereof shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 3 of this Act, excluding with regard to a micro undertaking and a small undertaking.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(3) [Repealed – RT I 2005, 61, 478 – entry into force 01.12.2005]

§ 29. Exceptions

(1) A consolidating entity which consolidated indicators without the deduction of the mutual transactions are not larger than the balance sheet total and net turnover indicators of a small consolidation group provided for in clause 18 of § 3 of this Act plus 20% shall be exempt from the obligation to prepare an annual report of the consolidation group.

(2) A consolidating entity which consolidated indicators do not exceed the terms and conditions of a small consolidation group provided for in clause 18 of § 3 of this Act shall be exempt from the obligation to prepare an annual report of the consolidation group.

(3) The exception provided for in subsection 1 and 2 of this section does not apply with regard to a consolidating entity which itself or which consolidated entity is a public interest entity specified in § 13 of the Auditors Activities Act.

(4) A consolidating entity if the total amount of the balance sheet totals of each of the consolidated entities added together does not exceed 5 per cent of the balance sheet total of the consolidating entity and if its sales revenue does not exceed 5 per cent of the sales revenue of the consolidating entity shall be exempt from the obligation to prepare an annual report of the consolidation group.

(5) A subsidiary all of whose shares belong to one consolidation group, which consolidating entity registered in a Contracting State is required to prepare and disclose the audited annual report of the consolidation group, shall be exempt from the obligation to prepare an annual report of the consolidation group. Upon determination of the participation, the shares which belong to members of the executive and senior management of the relevant subsidiary shall not be taken into account.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(6) A subsidiary at least 90 per cent of whose votes represented by shares belong to one consolidation group, which consolidating entity registered in a Contracting State is required to prepare and disclose the audited annual report of the consolidation group, shall be exempt from the obligation to prepare an annual report of the consolidation group, provided that the exemption has been approved by all the remaining shareholders of this subsidiary.

[RT I, 27.12.2016, 1 – entry into force 01.01.2017]

(7) The exemptions provided for in subsections 5 and 6 of this section do not apply to a consolidating entity which is a company whose issued securities are admitted for trading on a regulated securities market of Estonia or another Contracting State.

(8) A consolidating entity exempt from the preparation of an annual report of the consolidation group pursuant to subsection 5 or 6 of this section shall disclose in the note on the annual accounts, inter alia:

- 1) the business name and registered office of the consolidating entity which has the dominant influence;
- 2) the information regarding the fact that it has been exempt from the preparation of a report of the consolidation group.

(9) The reports of a consolidating entity exempt from the preparation of an annual report of the consolidation group pursuant to subsection 5 or 6 of this section and its consolidated entities shall be merged into the annual report of the consolidation group to be prepared by the consolidating entity which has the dominant influence.

(10) A consolidated entity need not be recorded line-by-line in a report of the consolidation group if:

- 1) the consolidating entity was unable during the accounting period to exercise dominant influence over the consolidated entity;
- 2) the procurement of the information necessary for the preparation of the report with regard to the consolidated entity requires extremely unreasonable costs or long delays;
- 3) the shares of the consolidated entity are held exclusively with a view to their subsequent resale.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

§ 30. Annual accounts of consolidation groups

(1) The purpose of the annual accounts of a consolidation group is to provide relevant and truthfully submitted financial information regarding the financial position and performance and cash flows of the consolidation group.

[RT I, 30.12.2015, 4 – entry into force 01.01.2016]

(2) The annual accounts of a consolidation group shall comprise the consolidated balance sheet, income statement, cash flow statement and statement of changes in owners' equity (consolidated reports) and the notes which shall be submitted together with the unconsolidated annual accounts of the consolidating entity and the management's declaration (unconsolidated reports). The accounting entity which prepares the annual accounts of the consolidation group is not required to prepare the annual accounts specified in § 15 of this Act.
